Keynote Speaker For The Medical Community Just Steph, LLC. Is Changing Lives

Atlanta, GA- Steph Palermo is a published author, radio talk show host and motivational speaker. Steph draws from her life's experiences, living with a limb difference, personality and sense of humor to share her message. Her Sicilian heritage and Boston wit make for an always uplifting and honest message.

Born with Poland Syndrome, Steph raises awareness of the realities of life with a limb difference. Healthcare Providers and students, caregivers and patients will come to understand that living with a rare disorder is more than a physical hardship. Steph discusses the emotional journey that parallels medical treatment, coping mechanisms and caring for your loved one who is bearing the burden of a chronic condition.

Steph is also available as keynote speaker for other social and professional groups. She offers The Ruby Slipper Workshops for a fun, interactive day with Just Steph.
