The Ruby Slipper Workshops Just Steph, LLC. Is Changing Lives

Atlanta, GA- Steph Palermo is a published author, radio talk show host and motivational speaker. Steph draws from her life's experiences, living with a limb difference, personality and sense of humor to share her message. Her Sicilian heritage and Boston wit make for an always uplifting and honest message.

By promoting physical, emotional, spiritual and intellectual balance, Steph offers solutions to seemingly impossible personal issues. Your group will gain a better perspective on your lives, how to live a more peaceful existence and advance toward self-love and true joy.

The Ruby Slipper Workshops are fun and synergistic with round table discussions, reflection questions and interaction with Steph. Once you complete one of Steph's Ruby Slipper Workshops, you will know you've had the power all along!

Steph is available as keynote speaker for the medical community focusing on the realities of living with a rare disorder as well as other social and professional groups.
